We, the people of Holy Rosary, are called to be a Church with a living God and a dynamic heritage; a heritage that encompasses the beliefs and tenets of the Roman Catholic faith as well as the characteristics of the African American culture. We are called to be a welcoming beacon of hope to parishioners and the surrounding community for continued and sustainable spiritual growth to enhance and strengthen our relationship with God, address social issues, and provide parishioners with the necessary skills for increased evangelization.

Fourth Sunday of Lent:

In today's Gospel, God demonstrates great love for us by sending his Son so that we may believe in him. We demonstrate our great love for God by doing good works: reaching out to others, acting in justice and charity. Have you considered answering the call to serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Commonwealth Catholic Charities

In March we celebrate the work of our Baby Clothes Closets

Our baby clothes closets in Richmond & Roanoke help families with the supplies they need to care for their babies. Donations of diapers & wipes are accepted in our Richmond & Roanoke offices. Please visit www.cccofva.org/baby-clothes-closet to learn more. If you'd like to support the Baby Clothes Closets, or another CCC program in need, consider visiting our wish lists at www.cccofva.org/wish-list. If this is a need in your community and you need support, please let us know by contacting John Elwell, CCC Director of Parish Engagement at john.elwell@cccofva.org.

Give it up. Pay it Forward

Are you thinking of giving something up for Lent? This year, give it up and pay it forward at the same time! Donate the money you would have spent on your morning latte or pastry to CCC instead. We make donating easy with our online donation form at www.cccofva.org/donate.

Holy Rosary Catholic Church

March 14, 2021

All catechesis flows from the liturgy nothing is as important as what happens at the Sunday Mass. Christ is present in four fold ways, in the bread and wine, the Presider, the word of God and the community gathered. But for a lot of people the Sunday mass and readings and homily goes too quickly. In order for people to think back on the mass, we will have the "Question of the Week". The purpose of the "Question of the Week" is to bring together people of all ages to learn about and share their faith. The question will be relating to one of the readings from Sunday's Mass. The question will allow different ministry groups and families to break open the word and share faith throughout the week.

Question of the Week:

Adults: What are the evils in today's world that you pray God will free us from?

Children/Youth: Name some bad things that you want to pray that Jesus will take away from our world.

Reading 1: 2 Chr 36:14-16,19-23

Reading 2: Eph 2:4-10

Gospel: Jn 3:14-21

Friends many of us order personal needs and gifts from Amazon.com, which has become quite a provider for consumers. On Amazon, you can designate certain charities who will receive donations from Amazon on the purchases made. I designated HOLY ROSARY as my charity of choice awhile back. Amazon recently notified me that they are donating $50.71 to Holy Rosary on my past purchases! If we, our family, friends, and benefactors also designate Holy Rosary as their charity on Amazon think how much extra income the parish would receive for such things as maintenance, materials, sacramental needs, and so on. So if you use Amazon.com, and do not have a charity, please consider designating Holy Rosary. Information can be found on your sign-in page. Thank you!

Saint Louise de Marillac - Feast Day - March 15

Louise de Marillac was born probably at Ferrieres-en-Brie near Meux, France, on August 12, 1591. She was educated by the Dominican nuns at Poissy. She desired to become a nun but on the advice of her confessor, she married Antony LeGras, an official in the Queen's service, in 1613. After Antony's death in 1625, she met St. Vincent de Paul, who became her spiritual adviser. She devoted the rest of her life to working with him. She helped direct his Ladies of Charity in their work of caring for the sick, the poor, and the neglected. In 1633 she set up a training center, of which she was Directress in her own home, for candidates seeking to help in her work. This was the beginning of the Sisters (or Daughters, as Vincent preferred) of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul (though it was not formally approved until 1655). She took her vows in 1634 and attracted great numbers of candidates. She wrote a rule for the community, and in 1642, Vincent allowed four of the members to take vows. Formal approval placed the community under Vincent and his Congregation of the Missions, with Louise as Superior.

She traveled all over France establishing her Sisters in hospitals, orphanages, and other institutions. By the time of her death in Paris on March 15, the Congregation had more than forty houses in France. Since then they have spread all over the world. She was canonized by Pope Pius XI in 1934, and was declared Patroness of Social Workers by Pope John XXIII in 1960.
